FIAP DEFINITION: MONOCHROME

A black-and-white work, ranging from light grey (white) to very dark grey (black), is a monochrome work with different shades of grey.
A black-and-white work fully toned in one single color will be considered monochrome and may appear in the black-and-white category.
However, a black-and-white work modified by partial toning or by adding color becomes a color (polychrome) work and must be entered in the color category.

MANDATORY RULES BY THE FIAP

Submitting images to a salon under FIAP patronage implies unconditional acceptance that FIAP may investigate the images to verify compliance with FIAP rules and definitions, even if the participant is not a FIAP member.
FIAP will use all means at its disposal for this purpose.
Any refusal to cooperate or to submit original camera files, or insufficient evidence, will be sanctioned by FIAP, and the entrant's name will be publicly listed.

Pictures created by artificial intelligence are not allowed in this salon! All parts of the image have to be photographed by the author who is holding the copyright of all works submitted. Offenders will be sanctioned for life!

Results will be notified by email. The list of accepted and awarded works will be available on the website: https://www.festimatge.org/

The winner of the Torretes Trophy must contact the organization to accept the prize.
Claims may be submitted from the date the notifications are sent until 5 days before the awards ceremony.

Honor mentions and medals will be sent by regular mail to the address provided.
Foto-Film Calella is not responsible for losses or delays caused by postal services.

Participants are fully responsible for ensuring that their works do not infringe third-party rights.

DATA PROTECTION

Participating in this contest implies explicit consent for the personal data provided (including email addresses) to be stored, processed, and used for purposes related to this salon by the organization.
Consent is also given for this information to be shared with organizations that have an official recognition, sponsorship, or accreditation agreement with the contest.
The participant understands and accepts that participation implies that the status and results of any participant may be made public.
