JURY:

The jury will be composed of three people linked to the world of photography, recognized by the Catalan Federation (the FCF).

EXHIBITION:

With the aim of giving the photographs the maximum dissemination and promotion, the awarded works from each section will be on display from 11 to 27 November, together with a selection of the submitted works, photographically reproduced and properly framed to 40x50, always stating the author's name.

NOTES:

(1) Monochrome:

A work in black and white that goes from light gray (white) to very dark gray (black), is a monochrome work with different shades of gray. A black and white work with its tone changed to a single color is considered a monochrome work, and may appear in the black and white category. On the other hand, a work in black and white with its tone partially modified or with the addition of a colour, becomes a colour work (polychrome), having to appear in the color category.

(2) The notification of the results will be made by e-mail

(3) The prize will be sent by recorded delivery to the address that participants have indicated in the registration. Grup Fotogràfic Arenys de Munt is not responsible for any losses that may occur during the delivery, nor if the awards have not been properly delivered due to local postal requirements.

(4) If it is not said otherwise the exposed works form part of the archive of the group

(5) In the theme Arenys de Munt, the place where the photograph was taken must be recognisable.

(6) All the winners and selected works will get a point from the C.E.F. and the F.C.F.

Participants are totally responsible for ensuring that there are no third party rights in the submitted works, as well as for any possible claim for image rights, and authorizes the organization to reproduce the submitted works in order to display them, always stating the author's name.

By entering the competition, participants indicate their agreement to, and acceptance of these official rules.
